Psalm 78:1-8

O Come, My People

He did not speak to them without a parable.— Mark 4:34

1. ¹ O come, my peo-ple, to my law At - ten-tive - ly give ear;
 2. ⁴ We'll from their chil-dren hide them not, But tell the age to come
 3. That chil-dren yet un-born might know, And their de-scen-dants lead,

The words that from my mouth pro-ceed In - cline your-selves to hear.
 The prais-es of the LORD, His strength, The won-ders He has done.
⁷ To trust in God, re-call God's works, And His com-mand-ments heed;

² My mouth will speak a par - a - ble, The say - ings dark of old,
⁵ His word He un - to Ja-cob gave, His law to Is - ra - el,
⁸ And not be what their fa-thers were— Re-bel-lious through and through,

³ Which we have lis-tened to and known As by our fa - thers told.
 Which He our fa-thers did com-mand ⁶ To teach their chil-dren well,
 For they would not cor-rect their hearts, Nor un - to God stay true.
