Thanksgiving and Prayer Points

Congregational matters:

- Give thanks for the privilege of public worship morning and evening on the Lord's Day. Pray that the Lord will bless those visiting with us.
- Give thanks for the spring clean-up on the church property yesterday, led by Joel Lendore.
- Give thanks for those who teach Bible Classes and lead Fellowship Groups, and pray that the Lord will bless their work.
- Pray for the Ortega and Valdez families as they continue to adjust to the recent births of Miguel and Noah.
- Pray for our pregnant mothers, that the Lord will keep them and their unborn children healthy.
- Pray that the Lord will be merciful and save our covenant children and youth.
- Pray for the Lam family, who are on vacation in Singapore, and the Dohms family, who are vacationing in Edmonton.
- Pray that the Lord will bless the men of the church as they meet next Saturday morning to pray together, for their families and the church.

The RPC of Canada

Vancouver RPC (British Columbia) - Pray that the Lord will bless the ministry of Rev. David Matthes in Vancouver.

La Crete - Pray for the five families in La Crete, Alberta, who meet monthly with Rev. Quigley via Zoom for doctrinal instruction, as they want to see a Reformed Presbyterian church established in their town.

Students – Pray for Marco and Keturah Tochijara as they continue to look for a rental property in the city.

The Global RP Church

Brazil - Pray for the work being done by the ministers who recently met with Rev. Quigley as they seek to establish an RP Church in Brazil.

Chile - Pray that the Lord would bless the efforts being made by the RP mission church in Chile as they look to establish a second mission church.

Japan - Please pray for the physical health of the Japanese pastors, as some of them are experiencing health issues.

The Gambia - Brikama RPC - Pray for faithful men for the ministry.

Canada

Give thanks for the various 'March for Life' events that took place in the nation in the past week and for the growing number of MPs who are taking a stance on this issue.
