Thanksgiving and Prayer Points

Congregational matters:

Give thanks:

- for those who are visiting with us today, and pray that they will find the presence of Christ in our midst.
- for the diligence in preparation by those who have led Fellowship Groups and taught Bible Classes since September.
- that those of us who don't have family and friends to be with at this holiday season, will have the opportunity to gather along with those who want to come for our winter dinner this Friday at 4 pm.

Pray for:

- the minister's work permit to be granted. Pray also for Alice Coelho as she awaits approval of her work permit.
- those who are travelling this week to visit with family and friends, that they will be kept safe on the roads.
- our older brothers and sisters in the congregation, as they experience changes in their lives, that the Lord will give grace.
- the ladies in the congregation who are pregnant, that the Lord will keep them and their baby healthy.
- the young parents as they work to nurture and train their children in the ways of the Lord, and pray that the Lord will be merciful and save our covenant children and youth.

The RP Church of Canada

RP Seminary - Pray for the students on their two-week vacation. Pray that the Lord will bless them as they visit family and friends.

Nissi, Surrey and West Vancouver - Pray that the Lord will give the Session wisdom as they consider the best way forward for these two Chinese mission churches.

La Crete - Pray for the meeting the Session is having tomorrow evening with the five families to consider possible next steps in the progress of this fellowship.

Global RP Church

Australia/Japan - Japan Bridge Team - Give thanks that a young family, two adults and one child, who'd never been to church before came to the Mukonosu outreach event. Please pray that they will return.

Canada

Pray that the Lord will be merciful to our nation.
