Psalm 68C

5. When with Your people You went forth,
And marched through desert lands, O God,
Earth shook; skies fell before God's face;
Before God's presence Sinai quaked,
Before the God of Israel.

6. O God, You sent abundant rain,
Your weary heritage refreshed.
Your congregation settled there,
And in Your goodness You, O God,
Made rich provision for the poor.

7. The Lord announces this His word,
Great hosts of women spread the news:
"The kings of armies flee! They flee!
And she who stays behind at home
Will be there to divide the spoil!"

8. Though you among the campfires sleep,
You're like a dove with silver wings,
Whose feathers are a glist'ning gold.
When the Almighty scattered kings,
It looked like snow on Zalmon's hill.
